IN RE: MIDWEST GRAIN PROCESSORS COOPERATIVE	DOCKET NO. P-846
---	------------------

ORDER GRANTING ADMISSION OF OUT-OF-STATE ATTORNEY TO APPEAR

(Issued January 25, 2002)

On January 16, 2002, Midwest Grain Processors Cooperative (Midwest Grain) filed an application with the Utilities Board (Board) pursuant to 199 IAC 7.2(7)"e" requesting permission for an out-of-state attorney to appear on its behalf. Midwest Grain is requesting that Todd J. Guerrero be allowed to appear and represent Midwest Grain in this docket. The application indicates that Mr. Guerrero is a member in good standing of the Minnesota Bar and Midwest Grain indicates that Richard W. Lozier, Jr., will serve as the resident Iowa attorney in this docket. The docket involves a petition for a permit to construct and maintain an intrastate natural gas pipeline and has been identified as Docket No. P-846.

The Board finds that Midwest Grain has met the conditions required by 199 IAC 7.2(7)"e" and Todd J. Guerrero may appear in this proceeding on behalf of Midwest Grain.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED:

The application for permission of Todd J. Guerrero, a Minnesota attorney, to appear on behalf of Midwest Grain Processors Cooperative in this docket is granted pursuant to the provisions of 199 IAC 7.2(7)"e."
